

Camp Admission Procedures

1. Be sure the chapter has remitted to the Sixth District Keeper of Records and Seal the amount equal to $350.00 times the number of boys the chapter intends to send to camp. Please do not bring or send money to the camp site as there is no on-site registration.
2. Chapters sending ten or more campers to camp should have already made arrangement with Brother Antonio Coor, the Camp Director, for chaperones to stay the week at camp. The cost is $350.00 per person. Chapters are expected to bear this cost.
3. Make arrangements to have pre-camp orientation sessions with parents and boys anticipating attending camp. Formalize a short agenda for the orientation sessions to include, but not be limited to the discussion about:
  - A. General behavior
  - B. Care of personal belongings (stress that youth often wear the same styles, colors and brands of clothing; each camper should make every effort to keep up with his belongings)
  - C. Personal hygiene, particularly, the camper should wash his hands after each visit to the restroom
  - D. Cabin cleanliness (sharing cleaning responsibilities with cabin mates) and restroom cleanliness (only using the amount of toilet paper necessary, discarding paper towels in the trash receptacles not in the commodes, flushing the commodes after each use, and reporting any out-of-order facilities)
  - E. Respect for self and others and their property
  - F. Forbidden items such as firearms, knives, weapons of any kind, tobacco products, igniting devices, drugs, etc.
  - G. Other forbidden items are cell phones, video games and other electronic devices that are easily misplaced or stolen (emphasize that the district can not be responsible for missing or stolen personal properties)
  - H. Items To Bring To Summer Camp (list enclosed)
  - I. How To Handle Medications
4. Camp will be officially open and prepared to receive campers starting at 1:00 p.m., Sunday, August 8, 2010.
5. DIRECTIONS: On your web browser, type in <http://www.camphanes.org/content28.html> to get directions to Camp Hanes.
6. Upon arriving at camp, an Omega camp staff and/or counselor will meet and greet the groups. The chapter chaperones will be given information about where each of his campers will report. Camp counselors will assist campers to their living quarters. Adult chaperones staying at camp part of or the whole week should report to Bro. Coor for living quarter assignments.
7. Chapters must have someone ready to pick up campers no later than 9:00 a.m., Friday, August 13, 2010.
8. Chapter members are encouraged to visit the camp sometime during the week. However, phone calls are discouraged and generally are not accepted. Camp staff will make phone calls to parents/guardians if and when there is an emergency.
